CONKLING NEEDED.

Roscoe Conkling, it is said, is to re-enter politics this year. This will be pleasing intelligence to all republicans. The party in New York has, for the past seven years, stood sadly in need of the wise and vigorous guidance which it had during his leadership. It has carried that state but once since his retirement, and that was in 1881, when it elected its candidate for senator. Since then, the democrats have won the state for Cleveland for governor by a plurality of 19,251, and every year since then the democracy has carried it. In the days of the ex-senator's activity things were managed skilfully from this. The clear head and chivalrous and intrepid heart of Roscoe Conkling are needed this year to place the Empire State once more solidly in the republican column.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

There will be general rejoicing among republicans if Roscoe Conkling should show some republican activity during the coming campaign. There is no man in this country who is invested with more personal influence than he. Speaking after the manner of men in a political sense, he carries the vote of New York in his pocket.

He should have been in the campaign of 1881. He did not suit; neither did he betray his party. An attempt had been made to crush him. But a man like Conkling can never be crushed. The leaders of the republican party were against him four years ago, and his voice was not heard in the campaign. He was not asked to speak for the candidate or his party. The national committee made a blunder in ignoring him in the canvass, and Conkling was too proud and too careful of his honor as a man to tread where he was not wanted. Therefore he was silent during the great political battle when every republican should have been on duty.

One speech from Roscoe Conkling in 1881, would have changed the destiny of James G. Blaine. Cleveland would never have been president. This is giving one man credit for amazing power, but it fits Conkling exactly. Oconto county is republican by two thousand majority. Conkling's powerful silence caused it to give a majority for the democratic ticket. One word from him would have awakened the old time enthusiasm of the republicans of Oneida and Blaine would have swept the county. Roscoe Conkling has such a tight grip on the confidence of the people of New York, that his will can carry the state. Let the republican managers remember this fact.

CANVASSING FOR EMIGRANTS.

There is a canvass from the state of Alabama traveling through the north drumming up immigrants for that state. The commission consists of three men who are authorized by the governor of Alabama to visit the north and tell the people here what a glorious state they have for northern blood to live in. They speak of its climate, of its resources, of its industrial development, and of its possibilities, in glowing terms over all those spoken of. They try to make our people think that Alabama is a paradise where the chilling blasts of winter, where the ravages of epidemics, and where failure of crops never come.

Alabama is a great state since the democratic slave-holders' rebellion was crushed. It has a good climate. Its industrial resources are wonderful. It has splendid possibilities. But everybody knows that the state is under the domination of one of the most dangerous political organizations that ever disgraced a state. There is no more political freedom in Alabama than there is a social freedom in the chain-gangs of Mississippi. A republican is not allowed to exercise his political rights in Alabama. Let any one take the democratic election returns of that state, or of any of the southern states, and see how many republicans are permitted to vote. These election returns tell a sad but a truthful story. They tell the people of the north that there is no political freedom in the south, unless a man is a democrat.

These statements are not founded on republican falsehood, but on facts, as proved by not only press reports, but by election returns made by democratic inspectors. The way to fill up the south with northern blood and northern enterprise, and capital, is to guarantee the people there the same political rights as the people in the north have.

Arrangements are being perfected for the celebration of the freedom of the colored people in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin, given by the ordinance of 1878, and in the southern states, given by President Lincoln's proclamation. The celebration will take place during the centennial in Columbus, Ohio, September 22. It is proposed to hold the celebration on the exposition grounds. There will be a jubilee chorus of 500 voices, a national oration by Rev. B. W. Arnett, D. D., of Wilberforce university, and an ode to freedom by Mr. J. M. Bell, of Toledo. The ceremonies of the morning will be to celebrate the emancipation proclamation, and those of the afternoon the ordinance of 1878. Each of the states represented will have an orator. The Rev. James Pendleton, of Columbus, will be president of the day. In the evening there will be a jubilee concert. All the colored civic and military societies in the northwest territory will be represented.

Religious authority says the present week is one that is unusually observed with special ceremonies in the churches, especially so in the houses of worship of the Episcopalians and the Catholics. The Catholics who would enter an Episcopal church to-day would find the coverings of the altar just the same as his own church, and with the exception of the language and the mass, there is no difference whatever the colors of the vestments having the same meaning to each. The high Episcopal church comes nearer in its symbols to Catholic forms, and the candles even are there, with the palms and every other feature typical of the scenes the day commemorates.

It is stated that the visit to California of Joseph J. Smith, son of the famous Mormon prophet, was to settle a disputed claim to the presiding leadership of the Oakland church of Latter Day Saints. It appears that charges of irregularity were made against John Parsons, presiding elder, and he invoked the aid of young Smith. It had never been known by the Josephites that young Joseph claimed prophetic power, but while in Oakland he had a revelation couched in similar language to his father's revelation, in which he declared against Parsons. On the strength of this the Mormons elect a new elder.

The people of St. Thomas, West Indies, want to come into the United States and bring their island with them. Their method for effecting the latter operation is simple. They want to be annexed and to see the United States come to St. Thomas and hoist its flag there. St. Thomas is a Danish colony, but does not want to continue so, and as Denmark finds the island unsatisfactory, the people are looking for a new allegiance, and have a decided predilection for the United States.

IN CONGRESS.

The Senate Amends the Bond-Purchase and Anti-Slavery Resolutions in the Senate, and Resolving to Re-consider the House, Washington, March 27.—The House bill to provide for the purchase of United States bonds by the Secretary of the Treasury came up in the Senate yesterday, and Senator Plumb (Kan.) offered an amendment in the form of a new section requiring the Secretary of the Treasury, whenever the circulation of a National bank is surrendered, to issue Treasury notes to an equal amount. The amendment was laid on the table, 25 to 28, says, 21.

Senate Committee on Finance Committee on Territories, reported negotiations concerning it to be the sense of the Senate that now States should be admitted only on the basis of equality, and that Congress ought not to exercise any supervision over the construction of any such new State further than is necessary to guarantee to each State a republican form of Government; that the proposed constitution for Utah contains provisions which would deprive such proposed State of equality, and that it is the sense of the Senate that the Territory of Utah ought not to be admitted until it is certain beyond doubt that the practice of polygamy has been entirely abandoned by the inhabitants and until it is likewise certain that the civil affairs of the Territory are not controlled by the priesthood of the Mormon church. Motion of Senator H. C. Bowen's resolution was ordered printed. Senator Gilman also reported back the Utah memorandum and draft of the constitution, and asked that the committee be discharged from their further consideration. So ordered.

Senators Hale (Me.) and Davis (Miss.) presented petitions from the Board of Regents of the Dakota Agricultural College, Brookings, asking for legislative authority to elect to the seat of the public domain in Dakota 20,000 acres of public lands as an endowment to the college.

Senator Hiddleberger (Va.) addressed the Senate in favor of his resolution to consider the fisheries treaty in open session. He said public sentiment demanded consideration of this treaty with one cheer. The treaty involved concessions which should not be made. The United States could protect her fisheries rights and all other rights without conceding any to the treaty. He hoped the fisheries treaty would be left out with the extinction treaty until the next session, and that they would die together. Senator Sherman (O.) opposed the resolution, but said the Foreign Relations Committee would likely report in favor of considering the fisheries treaty in open session. Senator Hiddleberger (Va.) finally consented that this resolution should be laid over.

Most of the time in the House was taken up in discussing District of Columbia business, but no action was taken. Among the bills introduced were: By Mr. Kerr (Ia.), for the establishment of a permanent board of arbitration between the United States and Great Britain and France; by Mr. Hooker (Miss.), to provide for the joint celebration at Washington in 1880 by the sixteen American republics in honor of the centennial of the constitution of the United States; by Mr. Geer (Ia.), to provide for the World Exposition at Washington in 1892; and others. There was a general exhibition of the three American in honor of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America; by Mr. Stewart (Ga.), to amend the Naturalization law so as to require would-be citizens to make oath that they are not polygamists, anarchists or communists.

Mr. Laird (Nob.) introduced a resolution tendering the thanks of Congress to Lieutenant A. W. Greeley and others for their courage, energy and fidelity in the conduct of the recent scientific expedition to the Arctic pole.

Mr. Lawler (Ill.) presented and referred to the Committee on Commerce the letter to the public from the Brotherhood engineers in relation to the strike on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad.

Three lives lost.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 27.—Wind has reached here of the almost unprecedented strength of the town of Ninnescah, Kingman County, Kan., last Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock by a tornado. It had been raining all day, and an evening approaching the funnel-shaped terror was soon approaching from the southwest. It struck the town and destroyed every thing in its path, leaving only three houses standing in ruins. Two churches, two stores and numerous dwelling-houses were absolutely torn to pieces, and the Indians caused the death of three and the maiming of seventeen others. Two dead are Mrs. J. C. Williams, with her infant, and George S. Hardisty. Those most seriously hurt are James Williams, both legs broken and severely bruised, will probably die; Charles Gordon, in the back, supposed to be dead, others injured have only slight hurts. The heavy rain which has kept up since Saturday has hampered the efforts of the Indians to remove the dead.

RETRIEVING LAND-SLIDE.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 27.—The heavy rain-storm which prevailed Saturday and Sunday caused a tremendous land-slide on the bluff facing the Union depot, which threatened to prove fatal to the property along Bluff street for a distance of three miles.

SOME STARTLING FACTS.

The Discovery of the Cause of Most Untimely Deaths that Come upon the Community.

The official returns of the City of New York show that nearly three-fourths of deaths from consumption, in fact, it is really awful. And yet every case without exception, morning and evening, is a silent mystery, a thick darkness, a tight silence at night; difficult to break; a tightness across the chest; a pain that grows in intensity, which, unless checked, means certain death with long and agonizing fits. In view of the facts and the present facts of the disease, the greater the value of the physician are of the greatest value.

Dr. John G. Goss, eminent physician, London says: "Science, commerce, and every species and all experience testify to the benefits derived from the use of pure Whisky."

Dr. J. H. Barker says: "I have used and examined Dr. Duff's Pure Malt Whisky, and find the best I ever tried."

Another says: "Duff's Pure Malt Whisky is, without doubt, the invigorating drink when stimulants are out of the question, and all stimulants are out of the question, and the cure of the acute ones also."

The results from the lips of the leading physicians of the day, and confirmed by the experience of all known to all, who feel the approach of consumption no matter what part it may take, is that the use of pure whisky is the only remedy for women who will use Dr. Duff's Pure Malt Whisky according to the directions can do consumption and prolong life with all its blessings.

All Branches of Woman's Work Well Represented—Mrs. Stanton's Plan for Political Liberty—Addresses on Various Topics.

LADIES FROM ALL LANDS.

WISCONSIN, March 27.—The venerable Elizabeth Cady Stanton stepped upon the stage in Albany, N.Y., on Friday yesterday morning, and down upon the bosom of her friends before her she was faced with the most distinguished assemblage of women that ever gathered under one roof in this or any other country. Every branch, every feature of woman's work for the advancement of her sex and the welfare of the country at large—temperance, post, purity, prison reform, temperance, post, the public law, women—all and more were represented.

Women who through their life-work have made their names known and honored throughout the world.

Right at the end of the second row from the stage, her eyes fixed upon the president of the society, sat Fannie Palmer, who for years had been in the cause of her sex in India. Seated next to her was Miss Anna B. Bogot, delegate from France, and chief of the council for the aid of the female criminals of Paris. White, kind, calm and sedate, she looked like a nun of the earlier ages.

MARY DIAZ: Across the aisle was a distinguished group, of which Mrs. Ashton Dike, delegate from the Manchester Liberal League, and one of the most noted women of England, was the central figure. Next to her sat Misses May, step-daughters of the late Senator Mill, and Lucy, the daughter of the touchstone of the great political economist, John May, Mrs. Ormiston of Edinburgh, chief of the social purity movement, and Mrs. Alice Schreiber, of Leipzig, who thirteen years ago took an active part in promoting the success of the National Union of Working Women, the first trades union of women that ever existed in the world, and that was brought into existence by Henry H. Hins, now a resident of Chicago. Next to the chairwoman was the Baroness Gugenberg and Miss All Trapp, representing the women's societies of Finland; Mrs. Ada Frazer, of Chicago, who, at the head of the female criminals of Paris, was the first to receive a university charter for the education of women.

"Philanthropies" will be the general subject of the speeches at the morning session to-day. H. L. Hins, president of the National Union of Working Women, will speak on the subject of the National Union of Working Women, and the other speakers will be the Rev. Dr. Grotte, representative of the Norwegian Suffrage Association, and Mrs. May, the first lady member of the London school board. The American representatives sat for the most part to the right of the platform.

Shadrigo was represented by Susan R. Anthony, Rachel Foster and Lucy Stone, among others; the pulpit, by Rev. Dr. Hins, Mrs. Brown, Olymnia Brown, Willis Atta, Bowles, and others; Dr. B. L. Blackwell, Louise S. Baker, Ainslie H. Shaw, Amanda Dooley and Florence Kolich; Education, by Rev. A. Michaels, of the Northwestern University; Temperance, by Rev. A. Wilcox; Hospitals, by Dr. George W. C. T. U., and delegate of Ontario; and Rev. W. C. T. U. will talk the same subject.

For discussion will be given on subjects suggested by Anna Prinsen, of Holland, Gordon, who will speak on "How to Reach the Masses"; Dr. E. W. Harper, "What Shall I Do with the Neglected Rich"; Jane K. Barney, superintendent of prison, jail, police and almshouse work of W. C. T. U., on "Police Marriages"; Dr. Mary Weston, director of National Temperance Hospital and Medical College Association, on "The Temperance Hospital"; Martha D. Carse, on "The Temperance Term"; and Mary H. Miller, National Superintendent Scientific Instruction, on "Our Reasons."

—Miss Loren McHenry returned to her home in Kenosha to-day after an extended visit with Janeville friends.

—Post Hall will be filled on Thursday evening, with members and friends of the Rock County Caledonian society.

—The friends of Mr. Z. Schoss, of Milton avenue, second ward, will regret to learn that he is very dangerously sick.

—Easter is certainly coming. One west side grocery received two hundred dozen eggs within three hours this morning.

—Mrs. George Galbraith, of Algoma, Iowa, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Galbraith, of the second ward.

—A jolly company of Court Street church Earnest Workers spent last evening at the home of H. F. Bliss in the second ward.

—The ring masters of the city democracy hold a secret conclave last evening. Oh! no; the democrats never do such things.

—Ever republican in the city should make it a point to attend the republican ward caucuses this evening in their respective wards.

—Photographs of Janesville business houses are being made with a view to the publication of an illustrated prospectus of the city.

—Ortional Lodge No. 22, Knights of Pythias, assemble in regular monthly meeting this evening—Castle hall, West Milwaukee street.

—Mrs. I. B. Howe and son George, of Danvers, Mass., stayed for home to-day. They were called here two weeks ago by the illness of Mrs. Howe's mother, Mrs. Jas. Gould, of the third ward.

—Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Christine Lydon were held at St. Patrick's church this morning. The Very Rev. Dean McGinnity officiated and at the close the remains were taken to the Catholic cemetery for interment.

—There should be a large attendance at the Sons of Veterans party in Apollo hall next Thursday evening. All are invited and a good time is assured. Anderson's full orchestra will furnish the music. Tickets including supper will be one dollar.

—The L. C. T. U. of the First Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Ed. Burt, Park avenue, on Wednesday afternoon, at two o'clock, sharp. All ladies that are interested in furnishing the room at the hospital are requested to be present.

—Mosses, Carroll E. and T. W. Gray, who have the contract for laying the water pipes, were in the city last evening and part of to-day, looking over their last season's work. They will return to the city about the middle of April and finish the laying of the water pipe.

—The Gazette will venture the assurance that not a single republican will be found taking part in the proceedings of the democratic ward caucuses to-morrow evening. Courtesy would suggest to every intelligent democrat similar action at the republican caucuses this evening.

—This afternoon Grand Master S. C. Carr, of the state grange, addressed a large meeting at Evansville on the "Organization of Farmers." To-morrow afternoon Mr. Carr will address the meeting at Pomona Grange hall; while on Thursday he will speak to a farmer's convention at Fulton.

—A Janesville paper queries whether the "gods" referred to in the quotation "the gods give us joy" are "galler gods."

From the manner and frequency with which the paper uses the quotation it would seem that the gods of the most potent influence must be Bacchus and Cupid.

—The Rock County Sunday School Association is in session at Clinton, the occasion being the nineteenth annual meeting. An interesting programme has been prepared and Janesville Sunday school workers are cordially invited to attend. The association will be in session to-morrow evening in the evening.

—Invitations will be sent out within a few days for a reception and musicals to be given by the Philharmonic society at the Congregational church. The date set is Tuesday evening, April 10th. Besides a rehearsal of the Passion music, to which the club has devoted much of its time, there will be a programme of miscellaneous music arranged especially for the evening.

—Janesville friends of the Rev. Thomas Harrison will read with interest that the revival conducted by the "boy evangelist" at the Central Methodist Episcopal church, New York, is entering upon its tenth week, and the number of conversions is over 900. Sunday night the church was crowded to the doors, and many came forward for prayers. When the list of conversions reach 1,000 an all day jubilee is to be held, at which it is promised that the Rev. Drs. Talmage and Bockley will be present.

—WILLIAM F. BECKETT,

—WILLIAM H. BLAIR,

—Prohibition City Committee.

—THE WEATHER.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 26 degrees above zero.

Partly cloudy with west wind.

At one o'clock p.m. the register was 36 degrees above zero.

Partly cloudy with northward wind.

At the corresponding hours one year ago the weather was 21 and 29 degrees above zero.

—It is said that the democratic ring masters have resolved to nominate Alderman Carpenter, of the first ward, as their candidate for street commissioner. It is whispered that an extra effort was made by the managers to "down" John Casey, the register was 21 and 29 degrees above zero, and prevent him from running for Alderman in the fifth ward, but Casey would not "down" at their bidding, and now the ringsters are doing some fine work at the rack and file from the fifth, fearing the whole slate will be smashed in consequence of such opposition.

—With the near approach of the close of Lent, society people will be interested in the announcement that in Paris just now the minuet is the fashionable dance, but its popularity is contested by the rigadoon. The entertainments of which these dances are the main attractions are very expensive to participants, as fancy dress costumes and appropriate properties must be provided. Invitations are printed after the style of the period which dances and costume are intended to represent. When the Avergnat dances are given the musicians play on stands simulating boudoirs, that being the merry custom in Avergnat in old times.

—Heretofore the gold medal awarded by the Wisconsin Pharmaceutical Association to the pupil winning the highest honors in pharmaceutical studies at Baraboo last evening.

—Janesville City Lodge No. 90, I. O. O. F., occupy Old Fellow's Hall this evening—regular weekly meeting.
